Preface

Dear Little Readers and Guardians,

This book is one of the heartwarming stories created by The Madam Geeta, a dedicated kindergarten teacher with over 18 years of experience working with children aged 3 to 6. Inspired by her students' curiosity, kindness, and imagination, she began writing stories that not only entertain but also teach gentle life lessons.

Each story shares a simple moral—like being honest, kind, brave, or helpful—told in a way little ones can easily understand and enjoy. These tales are perfect for bedtime or story time, helping children grow in both heart and mind.

We hope these stories bring joy, spark imagination, and leave behind a little wisdom in every young heart.

With love,
The Madam Geeta

In a green, cheerful forest,
three best friends lived happily.

Bunny the Rabbit

Tilly the Turtle

Cuckoo the Bird

They spent their days exploring and having fun together.

One sunny morning, Bunny had a bright idea and said, 'Let's have a picnic by the big oak tree!'

Tilly smiled, but he softly
replied, 'That sounds
wonderful,

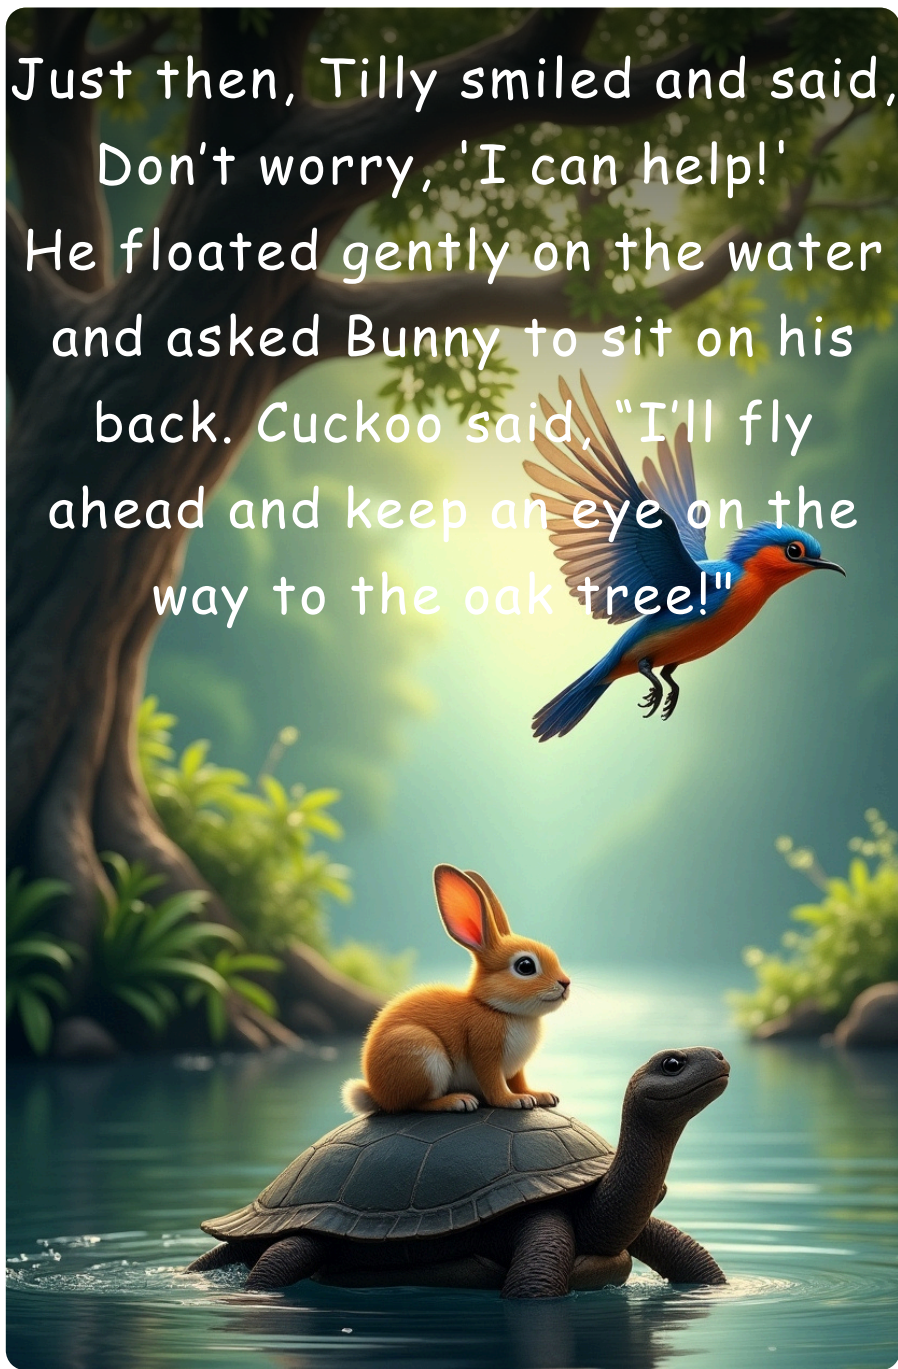

Bunny and Cuckoo cheerfully
replied, 'No worries!
We'll all go together!'

As they made their way through the forest, they
came across a river.
Bunny worried, 'Oh no! How will we cross?'

Just then, Tilly smiled and said,
Don't worry, 'I can help!'
He floated gently on the water and asked Bunny to sit on his back. Cuckoo said, "I'll fly ahead and keep an eye on the way to the oak tree!"

With teamwork and trust,
they reached safely to the other side.

Finally, they arrived at the big oak tree. They spread out a delicious picnic of berries, nuts, and sweet honey. They laughed, shared stories, and played a game of leaf toss.

Bunny giggled, 'We make the perfect team!' Cuckoo agreed and said yes because we are always there for each other!' Tilly beamed, 'That's what friendship is all about.'

And from that day on, they knew that together, they could overcome any obstacle.

The Story Ends
but the friendship
continued....
